The Top Ten Reasons to attend a DDA Retreat:

10. DDA makes you feel really good about yourself
9. You get to find yourself and YOUR faith, not your parents or friends faith...it's about you finding God for yourself.
8. You skip school and live with a bunch of people your age for a few days.
7. Your parents just might be paying.
6. You become a part of an awesome new family.
5. Jesus would go.
4. Oh man, best food - ever.
3. DDA is like a mini-vacation: 3 1/2 days away from the real world. (Or maybe this is the real real world!)
2. Make friendships that will last, memories that will last longer, and a bond with God that will help you through a lot. Trust me.
1. DDA and CYFM can change your life for the better, and help you realize that God is the one friend you know won't change or leave.
