

CYFM retreat staff attends Archdiocesan workshop on youth ministry

Yonkers, NY -- On Saturday, September 15th, four of CYFM's Cap Corps Volunteers, Executive Director Tom Brinkmann, and Chaplain Fr. Erik Lenhart took part in a youth ministry workshop run by the Archdiocese of New York's Office of Youth Ministry. The team was blessed to have the opportunity to lead the morning prayer, which they did. Article...

CYFM invites Capuchins, their parishioners to events of fellowship, familial faith

Capuchins continue to offer encounters with living God in fifth decade of youth, family ministry

GARRISON, NY – Capuchin Youth & Family Ministries (CYFM) is priming for another exciting fall of programming at our retreat center in Garrison, and we would love to see many of our brother friars and Capuchin parish parishioners. The next few months will bring opportunities for teens, as well as their extended families, to encounter the living God and grow in Catholic fellowship within their nuclear and greater Church family.
